GENERAL.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 17th June 1887.

No. 38.—It is hereby notified for general information that the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore is pleased to direct that the rules, under which parties transferring landed property in the Madras Presidency may, through the officers registering under the Registration Act the instruments connected therewith, have the revenue registry of the transfer effected, shall come into force in Mysore on and after the 15th June 1887.

2. The rules with the modifications rendered necessary by local circumstances are as follows:—

- (1) In every case of absolute transfer of landed property by a deed of conveyance or of transfer of possession by any other kind of instrument intended to be registered in an office of Registration of Assurances, it is the duty of the Registrar or the Sub-Registrar, before registering the document, to ask the parties to the instrument whether they consent to the transfer of revenue registry of the land conveyed or transferred, and if they consent, he should, after registering the document, cause them to execute before him an application to the Revenue authorities in the appended form, and should transmit it after execution to the Amildars of the Taluk in which the land is situated. The Amildar should accept the application as proof of the consent of the parties in the same manner as if the application had been personally made before him, and should give effect to it at once as far as the particulars of holdings given are found to be correct.

Form of Application.

"I, A. B., son of _____ residing at _____ request that the revenue registry of the lands referred to in the annexed schedule and registered in my name may be transferred to the name of C. D., son of _____ residing at _____"

(Signed) A. B.

"I, the aforesaid C. D., consent to have the revenue registry of the lands entered in the schedule transferred to my name."

(Signed) C. D.

- (2) In the case of lands which have no Survey number as also Inam villages, &c., the land should be described by boundaries as in the documents registered, and the inability of the parties to furnish all the particulars referred to in the schedule should not stand in the way of the application being executed if they furnish sufficient information for the identification of the lands.
- (3) For convenience of reference the Registering Officer should give at the top of each application the page and volume of the Register in which the instrument referred to in the application has been registered.

The 1st July 1887.

No. 48.—Mr. Abdul Rahman, Town Magistrate of Mysore, is invested with the undermentioned powers:—

1. Power to take cognizance of offences upon information received from any person other than a Police officer, or upon his own knowledge or suspicion that such offence has been committed, (Clause c, Section 191).
2. Power to make orders as to local nuisances, (Section 133).

The 2nd July 1887.

No. 47.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi village, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vuttis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vutti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of the revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
